

Soldier, take my heart with you

Richard Le Gallienne

Charles Willeby

Andante con moto

Sol-dier go-ing to the war! Will you take my heart with you? So that I may share a lit-tle In the fa - mous things you do. Sol-dier, Sol - dier go-ing to the war.

Sol-dier go-ing to the war, If in bat-tle you must fall,

Will you then 'mid all the fa - ces See my face the last of all?

Sol - dier, Sol-dier go-ing to the war. Sol-dier,

Sol-dier, Sol - dier com-ing from the war, Who shall bind your sun-burnt brow

Soldier, take my heart with you

35 cresc. f p più f f
 With the lau-rel of the he - ro? Sol-dier, Sol-dier, Sol - dier com-ing from the 40 fermamente

 war, Who shall bind your sun-burnt brow? Sol-dier, vow for vow!

45 mf cresc. ten.
 Sol - dier com-ing from the war, When the street is one wide sea, —

49 f accel. un poco ff dim.
 Flags — and stream-ing eyes and glo-ry, Sol - dier, will you look for me?

53 p cresc. ten.
 Sol - dier com-ing from the war. When the street is one wide sea,

57 ff allargando rit. p molto espress.
 Flags and stream-ing eyes and glo-ry, Sol - dier, will you look for me? —

62 2