may not be - lieve ___ me now, ___ But some day you will, ___ I bye; ___ You kind - a thought that when you wan - dered a - way, ___ vow; ___ And when you feel like no one wants you a - round, ___

On my knees I'd beg you to stay; ___ I gave you my heart ___ com -
Then your thoughts will start home - ward bound; ___ You're long - ing to say ___ good - plete, ___ They say that re - venge ___ is sweet; ___ But I know ver - y well,

bye. ___ And when all my tears ___ are dry, ___ Then you'll come back ___ a - gain,

More than words ___ can tell, You will kneel ___ at my feet. ___
And you'll plead ___ in vain, This will be ___ my re - ply: ___

CHORUS

When you see an - oth - er sweet - ie hang - ing a - round, —

When you read the love-light in — his eyes, — You'll get wise, be - lieve me;

When you see an - oth - er's arms — go twin - ing a - round, —

All these things will make you re - a - lize; — You're jeal-ous so, — — You're bound to know, — That old time say - ing, — Tell me how does it go, oh! "ab - sence makes the heart grow fond - er," When you see an - oth - er sweet - ie hang - ing a - round, — That's the time you'll want to come back — to me. —
