

A Pal Like You

Words by
P.G. WODEHOUSE

Music by JEROME KERN

1 (Jim) You are such a pal,
2 (Jackey) Oh, my friend in need,

Don't know, nev - er shall. Why, you out - dis - tance All oth - er wom - en You've been friend in - deed. Saved me from dan - ger— I can't be - lieve you're in ex - ist - ence. If you on - ly knew, How I've longed for you;

just a stran - ger. I've been wait - ing, too, All these years for you;

I nev - er thought you would ev - er come. What luck that brought you.
I shan't for - get you: I mean to keep you now I've met you.

REFRAIN

Doz - ens and doz - ens of girls I have met, Sis - ters and cous - ins of I've known so man - y, such hun - dreds of men; Did - n't like an - y ex - men in my set: Tried to be cheer - ful and give them an ear - ful Of cept now and then. Flirt - ed a min - ute, 'Twas fun to be - gin it But soft sort of talk, but Oh, gosh! the strain was some - thing fear - ful!

found out quite soon there was noth - ing, noth - ing, noth - ing in it.

Al - ways found af - ter a min - ute or two Just to be civ - il was Oft - en and oft - en I used to get blue, Just went on flirt - ing for all I could do. Now I know why I could nev - er be con - some - thing to do. Now I know why I'd that sense of some - thing tent - ed, I was look - ing for a pal like you. you. _____ miss - ing, I was look - ing for a pal like you. you. _____