Marcia

I've had a lot of trou - ble since I came to gay Par - It's worth a trip a - cross the pond to see the way they They fol - low me with Tax - i Cabs when I go for a They whis - tle Yan - kee Doo - dle ev - ery time that I ap - ee, With ti - tle sell - ing French - men chas - ing wild - ly af - ter flirt, These French - men rave at a - ny noise that sounds just like a drive, And when I dine, they swarm a - round like bees a - round a pear, But it's the Yan - kee Boo - dle that they're af - ter, nev - er me. And why they fol - low me a - round I just can't un - der - stand; One skirt. But lit - tle me is more than wise, ex - per - i - enced, you see, And hive; And if my lac - es come un - tied, as lac - es of - ten do, They fear; I may look ver - y eas - y, still, I'll not be A - pril fooled— They'll of them grabbed me yes - ter - day and tried to kiss my hand. to these bro - ken counts I sing, "No wed - ding bells for me!"

start in fight - ing du - els ov - er who shall tie my shoe.
nev - er do the things to me they did to An - na Gould!

CHORUS

They al - ways fol - low me, _____ they al - ways fol - low me, _____ No mat - ter where I chance to stray, They're af - ter me both night and day. I'm turn - ing them a - way, _____ with great di - plo - ma - cy; _____ These roam - ing, roam - ing, roam - ing

Rom - e - os, Keep run - ning af - ter me. They al - ways me. _____
