

The Land Where the Good Songs Go

Lyric by
P.G. WODEHOUSE

Music by
JEROME KERN

(Solo) On the oth - er side of the moon, — Ev - er so far, Be - (Solo) Dear old songs for - got - ten too soon — They had their day, And yond the last lit - tle star, — There's a land, I know, where the then we threw them a - way; — And with - out a sigh we would good songs go, Where it's al - ways af - ter - noon; — And pass them by, For some oth - er, new - er tune. — So snug in a hav - en of peace and rest, Lie the off to a hap - pi - er home they flew, Where they're dear old songs — that we love the best. — al - ways loved — and they're al - ways new. — It's a land of flow - ers — And A - pril show - ers — With sun - shine in be - tween, — With ros - es blow - ing — and riv - ers flow - ing, — 'Mid rush - es grow - ing

The Land Where the Good Songs Go

