

When Two Hearts Discover

Words by EARL DERR BIGGERS

(Minot and Cynthia) from See-Saw

Music by LOUIS A. HIRSCH

Allegretto moderato

mf p

(Cynthia) Love's sort of fun - ny, you will find, (Minot) Love is de-light - ful, I've heard that,

Some - day when you are in it; You meet the ver - y one who seems The
And I'm not one to doubt it; Then, too, per-haps I may know more Than one you've pic - tured in your dreams— You know it in a min - ute.

peo - ple give me cred - it for— I may know all a - bout it!

You won - der if the oth - er feels The lit - tle thrill that soft - ly steals There's just a chance that I have met The sort of girl I can't for - get, poco rall.

In - to your heart but I for - get: Of course you've not been through it yet.
And when I speak, you un - der - stand, My views may not be sec - ond - hand.

When Two Hearts Discover

When two hearts dis - cov - er they're one and the same, _____ You find that it's kind of a won - der - ful game; _____ No word need be spok - en, in si - lence un - brok - en, You stand there a - dor - ing, you don't find it bor - ing. Your world seems as bright as the gold of the sun; _____ Your life seems to be but that mo - ment be - gun, _____ And oh, how you glo - ry to hear that old sto - ry, When two hearts dis - cov - er they're one. When one. _____